Talk about a weather change. We went from short-sleeve sunny days to having to wear a jacket in just a few hours. Those of you who know me know I'm thinking about where I can go to get out of this cold. I do not, never have, and never will like anything about being cold. But the cool weather sure made some beautiful colored leaves. I look outside my kitchen window and see beautiful gold leaves on a hickory tree. A little further out in the yard, the dogwoods are a dark red. God has made them a beautiful thing to behold.

Welcome to our Christmas issue. Thanks to our friends at White Interiors, our front cover puts you in the Christmas spirit. Times have been a little hard this year, but you don't have to spend a lot of money to have a wonderful Christmas. Just having your loved ones near is worth more than a lot of expensive gifts.

Another thing that will put you into the Christmas mood are the many recipes we have in this issue. Surely you will find just the right thing to make for an upcoming party or family gathering.

Among all the excitement of this holiday, don't forget about that tiny baby who was born in a manger so many, many years ago. As the song says: It was not an ordinary baby, It was Jesus Christ the King. Share that message with everyone you come in contact with this holiday season. It's the best gift you can give anyone.

Until next month...stay happy.
